Don't Become a Target

Dear Susan,

Will the groundhog see his shadow tomorrow? We hope not because we have seen enough cold winter days already. We are ready for some bright, cheerful sunshine. Did you know that Groundhog Day is observed because of Punxsutawney "Phil", who lives in Punxsutawney, Pennsylvania. For a short period he lives in his burrow on Goble's Knob and comes out on February 2nd to look for his shadow. The rest of the year he lives with his friend Phyllis in his downtown home. He has been predicting the length of winter for almost a century and has always been 100% accurate.

February 21st, President's Day, marks the anniversary of when Peach State Bank & Trust actually opened the doors of our present location in 2006. We celebrated the day with lots of festivities and had several past "Presidents" visit us that day. We hope you will stop by on Friday, February 18th for customer appreciation day and have some cherry pie with us.

See Carl Hurley and Jeanne Robertson

If you haven't already done so, sign up today to join us on Tuesday, March 15th to see Carl Hurley and Jeanne Robertson. It should be a fun (and funny) day. We will leave Gainesville around 9:00 am, and travel to Rome, Ga.. We'll have lunch at the Harvest Moon Cafe and then head over to the Rome Municipal Auditorium. The show starts at 2:00 pm and lasts around two hours. We should be home around 6:00 pm. Call Susan Williams at 770.531.2736 or email swilliams@peachstatebank.com if you are interested. The cost is $75.00 per person.

"An official-looking envelope arrives in the mail with a check or money order for $20,000 inside. The letter says you have won $4 million in a sweepstakes or lottery. You just need to wire $3,000 for taxes to claim the rest of your winnings. Is this your lucky day?"
